NORTH-WEST FRONTIER AGENCY.

Correspondence with Government, 1840–1845.

1. The records of which this is a Press List are contained in Books 83—91, 126—136 and 149—169. The receipts and issues are filed separately in the books enumerated, but in the Press List they have been combined and arranged chronologically.

2. In April 1840 Mr. G. Clerk, Political Agent, Ambála, was appointed, in addition to his other duties, to the charge of the relations of the British Government with that of Lahore in succession to Lieutenant-Colonel Sir C. M. Wade transferred to Indore. It was arranged that in matters relating to the affairs of the Punjab and the Court of Lahore Mr. Clerk was to correspond direct with the Government of India, while the control of the Sikh Principalities cis Sutlej was vested in the Government of the North-Western Provinces instead of the Agent, Governor-General, Delhi. Mr. Clerk's official designation was Agent, Governor-General, for the Affairs of the Punjab and later Agent, Governor-General, North-West Frontier.

3. In October 1842 the control within the Protected and Lapsed Sikh States and over the Subáthu Agency was transferred from the Agent to the Lieutenant-Governor, North-Western Provinces, Delhi, to the Agent, Governor-General, North-West Frontier. It was arranged that the whole Province formed out of the escheated Sikh States should be divided into the districts of Ambála, and Ludhiána including Ferozepore, and being incorporated with the Hill States under the Subáthu Agency should be treated as one jurisdiction, being presided over by a Sub-Commissioner subordinate to the Agent, Governor-General.

4. Mr. Clerk was appointed Envoy to the Court of Lahore in October 1842 and held that office until June 1843, when as Sir G. R. Clerk, K.C.B., he was appointed Lieutenant-Governor of the North-Western Provinces. The office of Envoy to the Court of Lahore ceased on Sir G. Clerk's transfer, and Mr. H. H. Greathed, an Assistant in the North-West Frontier Agency, conducted the duties of Agent to the Governor-General, North-West Frontier, from the 12th to the 21st of June 1843, on which date he was relieved by Lieutenant-Colonel A. F. Richmond, C.B. Colonel Richmond was in turn relieved on the 1st November 1844 by Major G. Broadfoot, C.B., who held charge until he was killed in December 1845 at the battle of Ferozeshah.

Clerk, Agent, Govr.-Genl., N.-W. F., addressing the Govt. of India, reports that Fakír Azíz-ud-dín before leaving for Amritsar called on him and introduced Sardar Sultan Muhammad Khan, Barakzai, who begged that his recent conduct in connection with the Ghilzaís might be judged leniently. Mr. Clerk intimates his intention of proceeding to Ferozepore viâ Nábha, where he will instal the young Raja, and states that Genl. Matabar Singh accompanies him. Adds that from the tenor of Fakír Azíz-ud-dín's remarks he thinks the Darbar is seriously occupied in devising means for effecting the removal of the Barakzai Chiefs from the frontier. The Secretary to the Govt. of India informs Mr. G. Clerk, Agent, Governor-General, N.-W. F., that it appears by recent despatches from the Envoy and Minister at Kábul that very serious hazards of disturbance have arisen in that quarter, an attack having actually been made on the outpost of Bajgah by a force of the Ousbecks of Khooloom with whom Dost Muhammad Khan has connected himself, and that from various intercepted letters there are streng grounds for believing that the Barakzai dependents of the Sikh Darbar have been forward in providing our enemies with funds, and that with or without his knowledge the name of Kunwar Nao Nahal Singh has been used as if he were taking a part in these hostile measures. The Governor-General has in consequence considered it indispensable that a considerable reinforcement should be sent to Afghánistán in addition to the recruits about whom order have already been issued. Mr. Secretary Torrens forwards copies of all the despatches referred to with their enclosures as affording ample evidence that a conspiracy is being formed in which the Barakzai Sardars and Kunwar Nao Nahal Singh are associated in favour of Dost Muhammad Khan. Requests Mr. Clerk will, in person, lay a full statement of this clandestine correspondence before the Darbar for any explanation it may have to offer of the intrigues of its feudatories and the Kunwar, and also inform it of the intention of Government to despatch reinforcements to Kábul. A kharita to the address of Maharaja Kharak Singh is enclosed, which Mr. Clerk should deliver on the occasion of his proceeding to the Lahore Court to execute these instructions. (O.) Also that two battalions from Kulu have without orders marched for Lahore, and that Major Ford, formerly of Her Majesty's 16th Foot, has died of the wounds received in an attack made upon him by the Sikh Battalion he commanded, which is now serving in the Hazára country. Reports having received a kharita from the Maharaja in reply to his transmitted by the hand of Fakír Azíz-ud-dín in which that Chief avers the entire subordination of the Lahore Army and declines the proffered assistance of the British Govt. to restore order. Mr. Clerk gives the substance of his reply to the kharita. States that Genl. Tej Singh, late Commander-in-Chief of the Army, has been shot while returning on his elephant from the Darbar, and that Mon. Mouton has been rescued by his cavalry from the battalions who lately murdered Mr. Foulkes in Mandi and is now on his way to Lahore with his family. Mentions that Major Ford died at Pesháwar on the day after his arrival from the Hazára country, but not from wounds inflicted by his men as previously reported. Major Ford was rescued by some Gurkhas sent to his relief by Mr. Steinbach, who was in the same camp. Notes that much anxiety is felt in the Darbar regarding Fakír Azíz-ud dín, who was accidentally wounded in the leg by Díwan Bishan Singh's sword. Intimates that the Ghilzai Chiefs unexpectedly arrived at Ludhiána, but Mr. Clerk ordered them back to Ferozepore. F., addressing the Govt. of India, submits an abstract of intelligence up to the 9th April 1841. States that from the latest accounts from Captain Broadfoot all was going well with the kafilas of the Royal families of Kábul, but the escort furnished by the Sikh Govt. was somewhat turbulent. Painda Khan is still in rebellion in Darband, where he has recovered some small forts from the Sikhs. The Maharaja continues to place great reliance in the efficacy of Dhian Singh's plan of enlisting hill men. Fakír Azíz-ud-dín is recovering from his wound. Jamadar Khushhal Singh has without resistance given up the fort of Bhartgarh near Ludhiána to the Maharaja. Genl. Court has been to Lahore to take leave of the Maharaja and returned to Ferozepore in a hurry, apprehending violence from the soldiery. According to accounts received by Genl. Court Mr. Foulkes was burnt alive. Mr. Clerk adds that having regard to the discreditable state of affairs at Lahore and the atrocities committed on Europeans, he has declined to receive some complimentary kharitas for the Govr.-Genl. and the members of His Lordship's family which were brought by Fakír Shah-ud-dín. F., transmits to the Govt. of India an abstract of Punjab intelligence up to the 16th April 1841. States that no progress is being made in restoring order in the army. Fakír Azíz-ud-dín, under pretext of an accident which lately happened to him, still avoids attending Darbar. The Sikh Govt. denies the rumour that it is intended to restore Kohát to the Barakzaís. Genl. Avitabile having farmed some villages on the border of the jagir lately held by the ex-Mohmand Chief, the Mohmands are resisting and collecting in order to make depredations on the Doába territory. Genl. Court has been paid Rs. 7,000, but as he considers himself entitled to more, he intends staying in British territory in the hope of recovering what is still due. Punishment of mutineers by Maharaja. Overtures made by revolted troops in Kashmir. Punishment inflicted on Jawala Singh by Raja Dhian Singh. The Maharaja's attention has, for some time past, been directed to inflicting punishment on mutineers and other lawless characters. Mr. Clerk has not heard lately from any of the Europeans at Lahore and infers that they are no longer alarmed for their safety. The revolted troops in Kashmir have made overtures to Raja Gulab Singh to renounce their rebellion, if admitted to certain privileges. The advance of British troops from Jalálabad has had a good effect generally on the rebellious troops. The jhanda, or Guru's standard, at Amritsar, which had been blown down in the late storms, has been re-erected with much ceremony under a salute from the batteries. Raja Dhian Singh has punished Jawala Singh, who headed the Chariari sowars in their rebellion against the Maharaja, so severely that his life is despaired of. No news of interest has been received by the Darbar from Pesháwar. The treasure remitted from Ferozepore under charge of Sardar Fateh Singh, Mán, has reached Pesháwar. Some military stores are about to be despatched under charge of Bhai Chet Ram from Ferozepore for the force in Kábul. (C.) (Vide Serial No. 635 infra.)	151	69	230-34

Capture of Garoo. Aggressions of Wazír Zorawar Singh. Negotiations between Lahore and Káshgar. Measures for dispersing turbulent soldiers during Dasehra. Rebellion in Lower Yusafzai territory.	Mr. G. Clerk, Agent, Govr.-Genl., N.-W. F., submits to the Govt. of India an abstract of Punjab intelligence up to the 16th Septr. 1841. Annexes copies of parwanas read to him by Rai Gobind Jus on the following subjects, viz., cases between subjects of Lahore territory and those of the Protected Sikh States; the conferences held by Raja Dhian Singh with Sayad Gul Shah of Peshawar; the Barakzai jagirs; the protest against the appointment of Raja Gulab Singh to the Governorship of Peshawar; Zorawar Singh's encroachments and renewal of Sikh claims on Chinese Tartary for plundered opium; aggressions of Nawab Khan of Pandiáli and the revised schedule of transit duties. States that he has received no reply from the Darbar to his kharita regarding the capture of Garoo. Suggests the adoption of peremptory measures with the Darbar for the withdrawal of Zorawar Singh on account of his aggressions. Remarks on the negotiations mentioned in the intelligence as being opened between Lahore and Káshgar and the insecurity in which the dominions of Shah Shuja-ul-Mulk will be placed by the encroachments of the Sikhs in that direction. Reports the measures taken by Raja Dhian Singh for dispersing the most turbulent of the Sikh battalions during the Dasehra. Mentions that Sardar Jawala Singh, who was moved from Lahore to a dungeon in the fort of Shekhupura, is reported to be dead. Mr. Clerk has little doubt that he was poisoned by order of Raja Dhian Singh. Mr. Clerk adds that by the latest accounts from Captain F. Mackeson the entire Lower Yusafzai territory is in a state of rebellion. (C.) (Vide Serial No. 762 infra.)	152	48	138-46

The Govr.-Genl. had intended leaving a British force at Pesháwar to support the authority of the Sikhs, but recent events have led the Government to abandon the idea; the Sikh Darbar should therefore make its own arrangements, and His Lordship would recommend that Raja Gulab Singh be allowed to assume the Government and direction of affairs at Pesháwar. Conveys detailed instructions as to the manner, &c., of the withdrawal of the troops from Pesháwar and the action to be taken by Mr. Clerk in the event of possible emergencies. (O.) F., forwards to the Govt. of India a copy of a letter from Lieutenant Cunningham enclosing correspondence which has passed between himself and the Lhása Wazír regarding the protection of traders, and states that he considers it possible that the Sikhs and Chinese may soon be willing to adjust their existing differences on terms based upon a monopoly of the foreign shawl-wool trade in favour of Kashmir vid Ladákh. Adds that the question arises whether the British Govt. will regard with indifference the sacrifice of a rising trade and manufacture which, first, famine and oppression in Kashmir, and latterly the war on the eastern frontier of Ladákh, have created in the territories of the Government of India and which a secure supply of shawl-wool by the direct route of Bashahr to the plains would greatly extend. The detachment of Sikhs, 500 strong, alluded to as having been treacherously slaughtered in the Karwan Pass by Sayads, was proceeding from Hazára to co-operate with Raja Gulab Singh's troops against Ladákh. Mr. Clerk does not think that Raja Gulab Singh could withdraw any of his troops from the east of Kashmir without imminent risk to his possession of Ladákh, at the capital of which, Leh, the Raja is now building a fort in place of the weak redoubt from which the insurgents at the instigation of the Chinese expelled his small party of troops.
